

BRAMFORD AND SOMERSHAM PRIMARY SCHOOL FEDERATION E-Safety Newsletter

Please find below some great sites to help keep your children safe online over the summer holidays and beyond.

Gamers! Gamers! Gamers!

AskAboutGames is a website that answer questions parents and players have about video game age ratings, provide advice on how to play games safely and responsibly, and offer families helpful tips to ensure they get the most out of the games they enjoy together. Each parent guide has instructions and videos on what games look like whilst playing and how to set 'in game' parental controls along with age appropriate alternative games.

\(https://www.askaboutgames.com/\)

The Nightmare of Parental Controls Unravelled For You

If you struggle (like most of us) with how to start setting parental controls on your home broadband connections, mobile phone by suppliers, child's tablets, games consoles (Xbox, PS4, switch) and smart TV's, internet search engines and entertainment apps (Netflix, Disney+, Now TV, Sky etc.) head over to Internet Matters who have easy to follow step-by-step guides on how to do this on all your digital devices/subscriptions.

<https://www.internetmatters.org/parental-controls/>

National Online Safety

In an ever evolving world of social media apps and games National Online Safety provide expert advice on the latest platforms and online risks that parents and carers need to know about through a beautifully engaging and content rich guides. There are over 50 guides covering Roblox, Minecraft, Fortnite, WhatsApp, Instagram and TikTok along with helpful 'start a conversation' guides on online issues with your children.

<https://nationalonlinesafety.com/guides>